

Write the meaning of the following verse.

Dadeum Kavyapryogaparintamatigal.

Sri Vijaya, the court poet of Eighth century Rashtrakuta Do Re Amoghavarsha Nripatunga, in his work Kavirajamarga, uniquely describes the talents and the breadth of mind and the beauty of the heart of the Kannadigas. The Kavirajamarga Kriti written by him is Kannada's Adya Upalabdhakriti. The whole work is composed of kandapadyas. Here and there some songs, verses and circles come in between. In this work full of features, he says while describing the total beauty of Kannadigas.

Those who are able to understand and understand what has been said and find out the meaning of sound. People of this country. He is clever, though he does not study deliberately, but he has an expert intellect enough to experiment with poetry. Scholars always look down on illiterates. But they are Kannada people

Although uneducated, he praises kawi as one who can experiment verbally (as one who can create poetry) . It stands as a testimony to the intellectual and creative spirit of the people of the entire country .

Apart from

Kuhitavara, Mattam Peerum Tanthamma

Nudioller Genre

Kivuakkakaluma Mugaru Muepalkaiver

Vivekam Matugalam.

The meaning of the above verse: Sri Vijaya, the court poet of Amoghavarsha Nripatunga, in his work Kavirajamarga, described the talent power and mental breadth and beauty of the heart of Kannadigas is unique. Kavirajamarga is not only the first accessible text of Kannada but also the first characteristic text. This is a manual for poets who want to compose poetry in Kannada. Not only the learned but also others are wise in their own words. He describes that even small children and dumb people can speak wise words.

Subhatarkal poets

su prabhugal chelvarkalbhijanarkal

gunis fans tyugar

gabeerachitar vivekis nadavargal y

The meaning of the above verse: Sri Vijaya, the court poet of Amoghavarsha Nripatunga, in his work Kavirajamarga, described the talent power and mental breadth and beauty of the heart of Kannadigas is unique.

Kavirajamarga is not only the first accessible text of Kannada but also the first characteristic text. This is a manual for poets who want to compose poetry in Kannada. The people of this country are good warriors. Poets, good lords, handsome, polite, virtuous, admirers, sharp, serious-minded, and prudent” These Nadavas (people of the country) are good soldiers, poets, kings, handsome, well-mannered, virtuous, admirers (when angry) sharp, serious-minded and wise. He speaks with admiration about some important aspects of the personality of the people of Kannada.