TITLE

'Hawk Roosting'

The poem's title begins with the noun 'Hawk'.

What does that suggest about the birds' importance to the poem?

Starting poem's title with 'Hawk' emphasizes the bird's importance to the poem.

What does it mean, and what does it therefore suggest about the Hawk?

Roosting = Resting; Hawk feels comfortable, safe and in control.

Roosting = Resting
The hawk must feel comfortable, safe, and in control.

01 Perched in Solitude

What could this image indicate?

What is the effect of this pronoun?

What does this line tell us about the hawk?

I sit in the top of the wood, my eyes closed.

Inaction, no falsifying dream

Between my hooked head and hooked feet:

Or in sleep rehearse perfect kills and eat.

What does this mean, and what does it show about the hawk?

What does the repetition of 'hooked' emphasise?

This is the poem's only rhyming couplet. What is its effect?

02

Killing Without Remorse

The convenience of the high trees!

The air's buoyancy and the sun's ray

Are of advantage to me;

And the earth's face upward for my inspection.

The earth has been personified in this line. What is the effect of this?

How has language been used in this stanza to make the hawk sound arrogant?

How does this word show that the hawk has power?

03

Embracing the Height

What is the effect of this consonance.

My feet are locked upon the rough bark.

What does this image suggest about the hawk ? Why ?

It took the whole of Creation

Why is creation capitalized ?

To produce my foot, my each feather:

What do these lines mean? What do they suggest about the hawk?

Now I hold Creation in my foot

What does this reveal about, what the hawk thinks about itself?

04

Oneness with Creation

What is the effect of the monosyllabic language in this line?

Or fly up, and revolve it all slowly—

Why does this phrase highlight the hawk's arrogance?

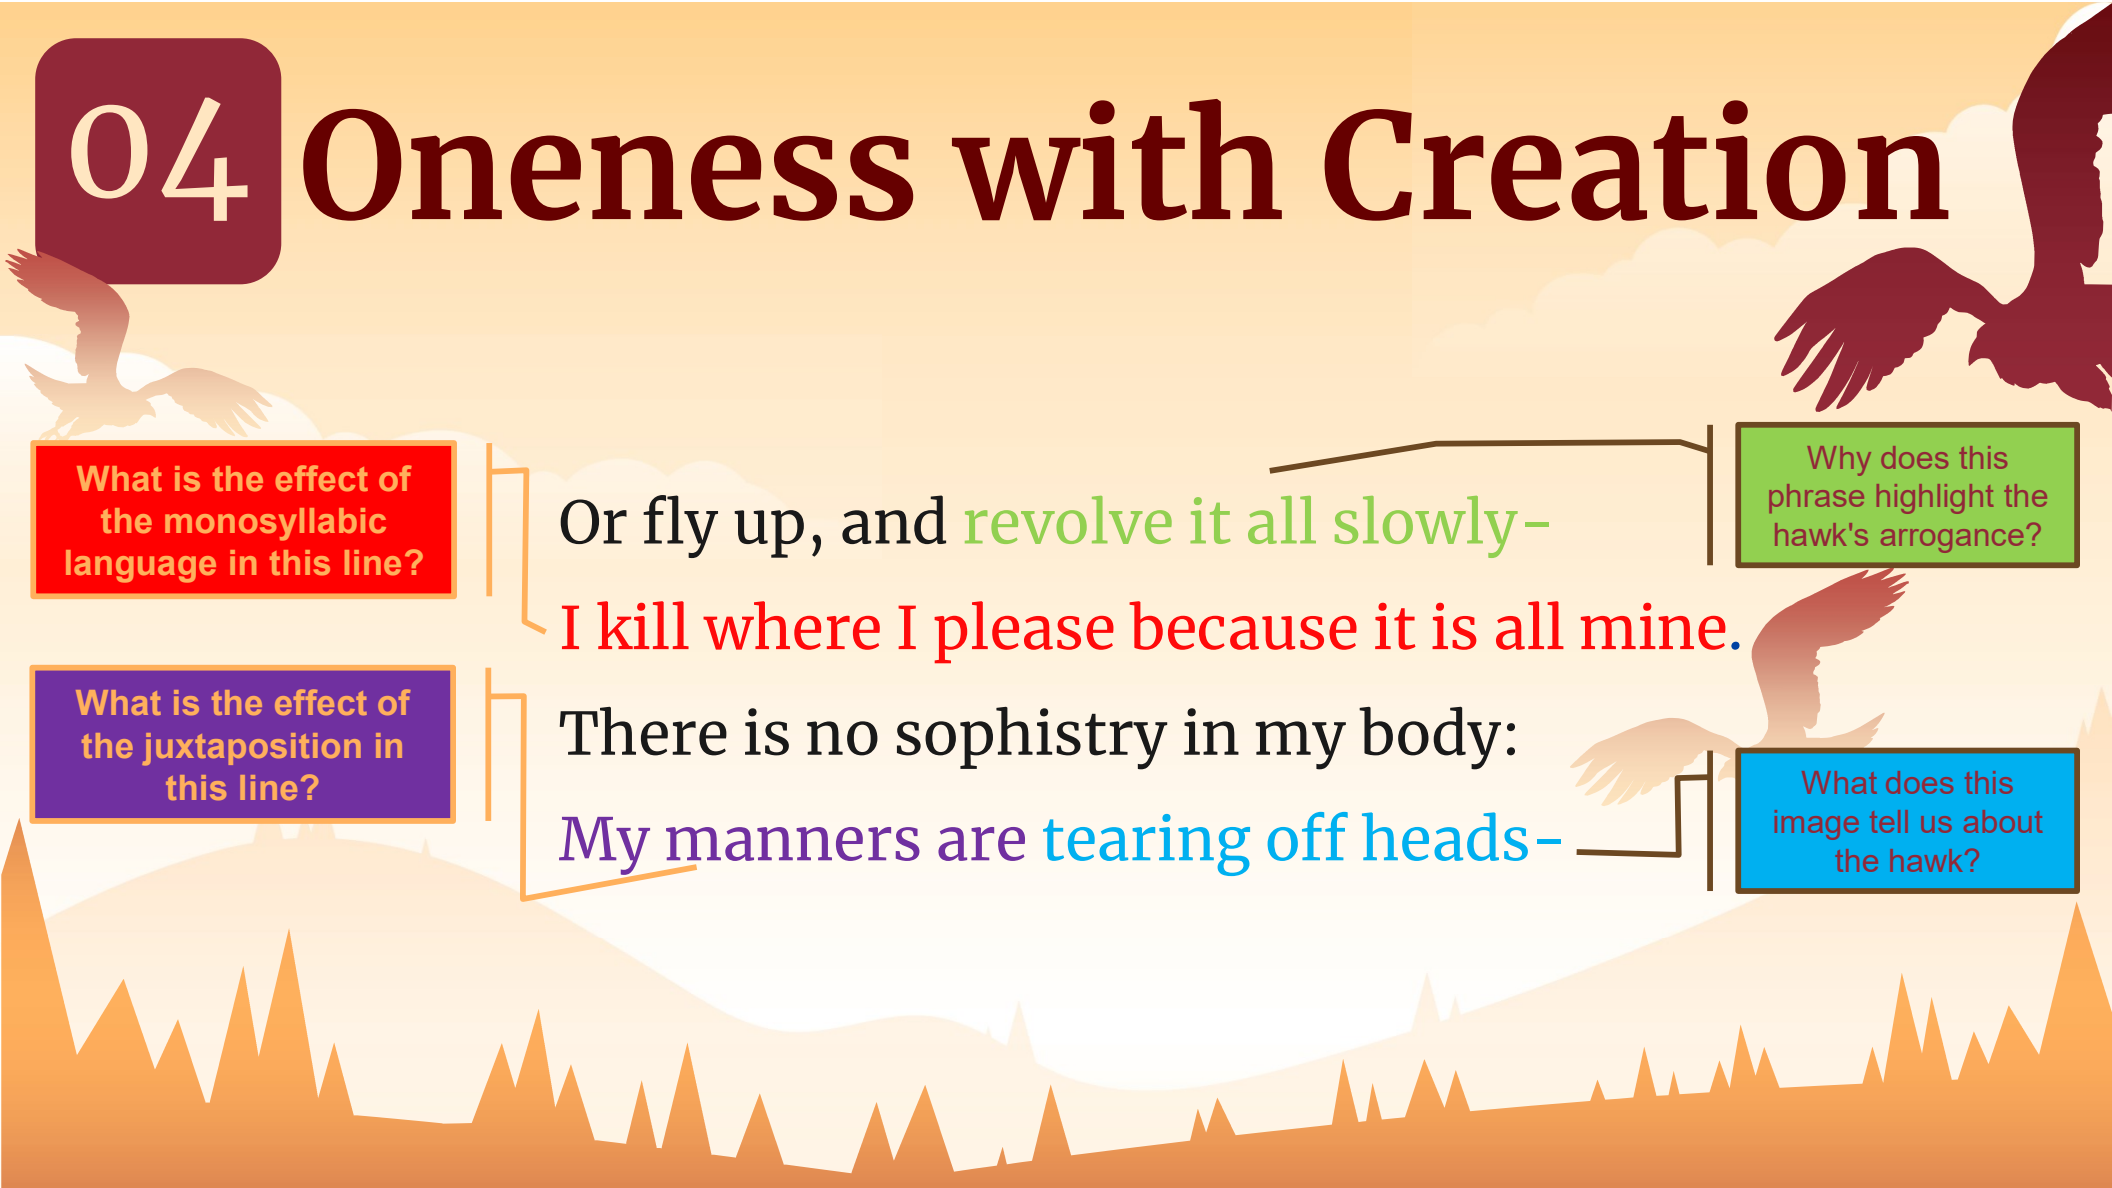

I kill where I please because it is all mine.

What is the effect of the juxtaposition in this line?

There is no sophistry in my body:

My manners are tearing off heads—

What does this image tell us about the hawk?

05

Unquestioned Authority

The allotment of death.

For the one path of my flight is direct

Through the bones of the living.

No arguments assert my right:

What could this mean?

What does the use of enjambment mirror?

What does this violent image reveal?

06

Unchanging Nature

What is the effect of this personification

The sun is behind me.

Why is this significant that this line starts with 'I'

Nothing has changed since I began.

My eye has permitted no change.

I am going to keep things like this.

What is the effect of end-stopping each line in this stanza?
